

The Art of Failing Forward

a free online/in-person Lunch n Learn experience

Monday December 2nd, 2024 (11:30-12:30pm PT)

“The Art of Failing Forward” presents best practices for reducing errors in project planning and construction through the teachings of Sun Tzu (The Art of War) and by adopting a culture of Failing Forward.

Join us to learn ways to increase project efficiency while saving money throughout the project lifecycle, including:

- SMART deliverables
- Milestones & planning for the unexpected
- Evaluating & re-evaluating resources
- Implementing a Failing Forward culture
- Application of the Failing Forward checklist
